RE: Reminder - GCSE English Literature Set Texts

Dear Parent/Carer,

At the start of Year 10, we shared a letter outlining the GCSE English Literature set texts that students are expected to purchase for their studies. This is a reminder to please ensure that your child has their own copy of The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson ready for the start of the new term.

Unfortunately, we do not have sufficient copies at school for every student to have their own copy. It is therefore important that students have access to their own text, as this will allow them to annotate, re-read, consolidate their understanding and revise independently throughout the GCSE course.

Kindly ensure that your child has the following edition:

Text	Edition	ISBN
The Strange Case of Dr Jekyll & Mr Hyde by Robert Louis Stevenson	Penguin English Library	9781407164267

We would also like to take this opportunity to remind you to ensure that your child keeps hold of their copies of the other GCSE texts they have already studied:

- An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley
- Macbeth by William Shakespeare
- AQA Power and Conflict Anthology

Students will continue to return to and revise these texts throughout Year 11. Having their own copies available will be invaluable as they revisit key scenes, characters, themes and quotations in preparation for their GCSE examinations.

Thank you for your continued support in ensuring that your child has the resources they need to succeed in GCSE English.

If you have any questions or concerns about obtaining a copy of the text, including any concerns about the cost, please do not hesitate to contact me. We are happy to discuss this with you and support where we can.

Yours sincerely,

Ms Mizan
